

Daddy God, Orphan Heart

God's Spirit doesn't make us slaves who are afraid of him.

Instead, we become his children and call him our Father."

Romans 8:15 CEV

Blurb

Some orphans still have living parents. I did. When a pastor confronted me at the age of 31, he said, "Sister, you don't believe God loves you."

I bristled, but a still, small voice in my soul said, "He's right."

My next words were "Lord, I receive your love." Those five simple words set me on a journey that night to my destined home, sitting in the lap of Abba God with my head upon his breast. I was no longer an orphan.

Until that night, the enemy whispered, "You'll never be good enough to deserve God's love."

He was right.

But God's glorious Word declares I don't have to be "good enough." My Abba Father has adopted me, and he loves me more than I love my own adopted daughter.

Daddy God, Orphan Heart explores the abundant fruit of the Heavenly Father/adopted child relationship, bringing freedom from rejection, perfectionism, fear of punishment, and unworthiness.

When you receive God's love, you'll lose your orphan mentality forever, and fully enjoy the inheritance of your Daddy God.

Retreat Sessions

- Orphaned, but Not Abandoned (John 14:18; Gal. 4:21-31) We are all born as orphans, cut off from our Father by our sin nature. But Jesus did not abandon us; He rescued us and sent his Spirit so we can be adopted into God's family.
- Mirror, Mirror on the Wall (Galatians 3:23-29) The law was not given as an impossible standard we must reach. It is a mirror to show us our sin and our need of a Savior.
- The Orphan Heartbeat (Galatians 5:16-26) Fear, rejection, perfectionism, futility, unworthiness—every beat of the orphan heart builds a barrier to receiving God's love.
- Living Like an Heir (Galatians 4:1-7) Acceptance of God's love frees us from the Orphan Heart and allows us to enjoy the inheritance of peace and joy promised to God's children.
